Saturday, May 8, 2010 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

No admission charge.

School groups welcome.

In addition to free guided tours of the Ohio Statehouse, the public is invited to visit a camp of Civil War soldiers and civilians on the front lawn. Walk among the tents and visit with historical re-enactors. Learn about life in the 1860's. Some of the stations will be:

Artillery: How to Fire a Cannon

Ladies Aid Society: Supporting the Troops

Medical: Wounds and Disease

Army Life: Marching and Shooting

Recruiting: Preserve the Union!

Living in 1861: Clothes, Food & Play

We would like to invite school groups and the public to spend some time at our Civil War Encampment in May. This event gives citizens the opportunity to observe re-enactors in period dress engaging in activities typical of 19th-century military and civilian life as well as firings of our authentic 1864 Civil War cannons throughout the day.

Students and members of the public are welcome to walk from station to station to learn about the topics illustrated above. Maps, handouts and a scavenger hunt paper will be available when you visit the Civil War military camp before or after your tour of the Statehouse. Visit our Web sites for more information.
